and intentionally works to reduce the number of farmers.

- Globalization and Local Future
- The present development model (Globalization) encourages urbanization, and intentionally works to reduce the number of farmers. All those displaced farmers have nowhere to go but the city, where they become cheap labor for industry, for investment from abroad. Pracha Huntanuwtr (the economics of happiness)
